History

The Michigan Association of Colleges and Employers (Mi-ACE) was established in 1960. This organization continues to provide updates on employment law and pending Michigan legislation that affect our schools, students, and employees.

Mission

The mission of Mi-ACE is to:

- Maximize the career potential of college educated adults by fostering employer and college/university relationships
- Facilitate the sharing of information on career planning and employment opportunities in Michigan
- Provide professional development opportunities for its membership through meetings, work shops, and committee activities
- Promote camaraderie among its employer and collegiate membership
- Actively support collaborative career/employment events within Michigan and the Great Lakes region.

Vision

The Michigan Association of Colleges and Employers is the pre-eminent resource organization that provides valuable educational programs, networking opportunities and venues for problem solving.

Guiding Principles

- Promote college and university acceptance of the responsibility to provide quality career services to students, employers, and interested constituents.
- Proactively address issues that impact the profession.
- Support one another - providing reciprocal services, develop and nurture professional trust, expertise and opportunities.
- Promote quality professional development for career services professionals and employers.
- Define, advocate, and communicate ethical standards in the career services profession.
- Collaborate with business and industry, non-profit, and education employers to provide current and accurate employment information to our students.

Membership Regions:

Mi-ACE is divided into four Michigan regions. Please check our website for details.

Employer Membership:

Employer members are persons who:

- Engage in recruitment of personnel from accredited institutions of higher education within the State of Michigan
- Follow the ethics for professional recruiting
- Seek opportunities to network with Career Services professionals in Michigan

Benefits of Employer Membership:

1. Build networks with career center professionals from various colleges and universities.
2. Learn recruiting trends in the Michigan market.
3. Share best practices with other employers.
4. Gain a better understanding of college student populations and their career search techniques.
